IRELAND &
THE ARAB MARKETS
آيرلندا والاسواق العربية

2013
٢٠١٣

The Arab-Irish Chamber of Commerce was founded in 1987 to promote and support the growth and development of trade and commercial relations between Ireland and the Arab countries.

The Chamber was established under the auspices of the General Union of Arab Chambers of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture with its headquarters in Beirut and is affiliated to the Arab League.

The AICC offers a range of specialist services to support Irish exporters in doing business with the Arab countries, and to help Arab enterprises to do business in Ireland.

We fulfil our mission through the delivery of a range of unique services to Irish exporting companies and through the provision of information, advice, introductions, connections and business leads to companies in Ireland and in the Arab markets.

The Arab markets collectively are the most important trading block for indigenous Irish exporters outside of Europe and North America, and their significance grows year by year. They are attractive markets for Irish exporters for various reasons: they import many of the products and services which Irish companies can supply competitively; they have considerable resources to fund their imports; their rising population cause demand to grow year after year - and they are not far away.

All Irish exporters to the Arab markets are clients of our Chamber and they rely on our unique services to underpin their business in the region. Key among these services are the provision of our AICC Certificates of Origin as required by the Arab countries; the Certification and Legalisation of all types of commercial documents; the delivery of a technical translation service to and from Arabic, and assistance with visas where required.

Our Chamber also organises various events throughout the year to welcome visiting delegations to deliver important information, to mark special occasions and to facilitate networking and interaction between our members and clients.

A very warm welcome to our special report which details Irish exports and imports with the Arab Markets for 2013.

While the figures for the volume of trade between Ireland and the Arab markets reveal a decrease of 4% compared to 2012, the total value is, nonetheless, particularly impressive, standing at €1.6bn. Arab imports for the year, meanwhile, decreased by 50%, which is primarily down to the importation of petroleum from this region.

All of us at the Arab-Irish Chamber of Commerce wish to extend our congratulations to those who made this possible. The roles played by Irish government officials, Enterprise Ireland, Bord Bia and a number of Irish companies, as well, of course, as the Arab Embassies, cannot be overstated, and for this we are particularly grateful.

Our sincere thanks to you all.

Ahmad R. Younis
Secretary General & CEO
